

Upper (1st) board starboard 1 - 28

Middle (2nd) board Port 29 - 55

Bottom (3rd) board Port 56 - 78

Sorry for the translation, but we will get it translated right as soon as possible - this translation was made by GOOGLE TRANSLATE.

Upper (1st) board starboard

1. Hunter hunting
2. Æbelø, can be seen (from Bjørnsknude)
3. Hares - the farmers on Bjørnsknude leased the land from Palsgaard, this included fishing rights, but not hunting, the landowner once saw from his observatory a farmer shoot a hare - he immediately sent word to the culprit to send a dairy cow to Palsgaard, or vacate the property
4. Kayaks in the bay
5. Porpoise – once a very common fish around here – is regularly seen in the Little Belt – and can be visited on Juelsgade
6. Seals – previously very common – can also occasionally be observed around here
7. The dog is ventilated and talked to
8. Guests in the city where there is fun in the streets
9. The mast behind the clubhouse on the little pier
10. Boat in the harbour
11. Motorhomes on the harbour
12. Cyclists are here too
13. Nior Bistro on the harbour
14. Life is enjoyed at the city's eateries
15. The lighthouse on the roof of restaurant "På Havnen"
16. One of the city's cats and sea mark called Kost
17. Music and dancing in the city
18. The coastal hospital in Strandhuse - The first ward from 1902 was a sanatorium with room for 52 hypothyroid children, i.e. with tuberculosis. A new ward was inaugurated in 1932 for 54 adult patients with surgical tuberculosis
19. Patients in the beds from the Coastal Hospital
20. Kysthospitalet - closed - the last patients are driven "home"
21. The TWIND schools take over Kysthospitalet in 1977
22. The chief medical officer's residence for the Coastal Hospital - is today privately owned
23. The sheep went next to the Coastal Hospital on "old Grethe's" property, which the Coastal Hospital bought in 1931/32
24. Entrance to the house at "Den gamle smedie" (corner Einar Schous Alle and Juelsgade
25. Brøndumhus - owner-occupied flats - this was previously a Hotel/Bodega
26. Odelsgade and Juelsgade – here are tables and benches where you can relax and possibly enjoy a cup of coffee etc. from the surrounding restaurants, and relax after a trip to Juelsminde's lovely shops.
27. The initiators of the ship held firm when it mattered
28. The binoculars on Odelsbjerget are used

Middle (2nd) board Port

29. The hermit Schantz and his wooden shed by the Strand - it was out around the bay - then called "Brøndum's meadow", he collected, among other things, vipers that he let loose in his living room, where they went until he could get to Horsens/Vejle and sell them to a pharmacist
30. around the year 1900, the residents of Juelsminde kept chickens that went in cages on the open fields that were around the town at that time
31. Palsgård sommerspil – well-attended amateur theatre, which is held every year first in the month of August – in 2024 Monty Python's SPAMALOT will be staged
32. Palsgaard castle - old estate The first known owner of Palsgaard was Jep Kalv, who owned the farm in 1372. The farm was divided between many different owners in the 15th and 16th centuries. Through approx. For 200 years, the farm was owned by the Reedtz family. Palsgaard's current appearance derives primarily from the major rebuilding carried out between 1803-1806. The core of Palsgaard's main building can be traced back to the Middle Ages
33. The Swan Pond in the city - built by landowner Einar Viggo Schou in 1919, the excavated soil was (together with soil/sand from the gravel pits around the playground and on the other side of Tofteskoven) used to fill up the land in Juelsminde, which at the time was swampy in many places and flooded
34. The memorial for landowner Einar Viggo Schou in the memorial park inaugurated in 1933 on the 20th anniversary of the church's dedication
35. Lighthouse
36. SKIBETS logo (a porthole for both visibility and insight)
37. The holiday colony Danebo is owned by the FDF scouts in Fredericia, not far away is the DUI camp, owned by DUI-LEG OG VIRKE, the land for both holiday houses is owned by Palsgaard and an annual rent of DKK 5 is paid.
38. Klakring Dairy established in 1882 discontinued/sold 1981
39. Anvil and hammer, symbolize the craftsmen who are/were indispensable for the city's development
40. Postbox and bicycle post – soon a rare sight
41. Juelsminde Girl Guard, was established in 1949, enjoy them every evening during the school summer holidays, where a guard plays the sun down at Juelsminde Harbor - the "Big Pier" at the Frigate's anchor
42. Houses along the dyke by the harbour
43. Juelsminde Sailing Association's clubhouse on the little pier
44. In front of the car park stands the sculpture "floating sea grass", a gift from contractors etc. who expanded the harbor in 1990, (in the vernacular it is called "when the bicycle smith went up in a spike" - he was angry that the harbor took away his view)
45. The water around the bay, As Hoved and Juelsminde is used a lot for sailing - from around 1890
46. As Hoved – the big oak in Palsgaard forest
47. Pole sitters, for many years it was a firm tradition in week 33, during the "Feast in the Whale"
48. Cutters on bedding at Bødebyggeren
49. A tattoo on Alf's forehead gives the name STJERNE ALF
50. The smoking area opposite the Harbor Museum, here is the "Smoking Festival" 4 - 5 times a summer for the benefit of the Harbor Museum
51. The old fishing sheds that were demolished during the port expansion in 1977 and Christian "Edderfugl" known for being very good at shooting, yes, eiders
52. Fisherman Viggo Jensen dries yarn, the yellow shed was Viggo's Fish Shop, with a sign in the window with the text "SOLD OUT" (it's still there) he only wanted to sell to acquaintances
53. Bar counter, smoker with grill
54. The old fish trade at Stormolen belonged to the Fishermen's Export Association - Denmark's first
55. Fisherman with wheelbarrow

Bottom (3rd) board Port

56. Lifebuoy
57. Summer house at Bjørnsknude (Holmboe)
58. Port office
59. Sailors on tour
60. The "Havnehusene" built on the old sawmill site on the corner of Havnegade and Strandvejen
61. Kuranstalten - built as a bathing hotel in 1898, now converted into apartments
62. Combined Viewing Platform and Storm Gate at the harbor entrance (probably before 2028)
63. Work is being done on the high water protection
64. In 2024, Tofteskoven's Children's Homes will create a flourishing biodiversity garden
65. The Port Museum
66. The crab bridge in the inner harbor - here children can catch crabs and see who has the fastest crab down the chute back to the water again
67. The bus comes to Juelsminde
68. The Rønnebær team has stayed together since 1991 and competed for the cup at the annual event
69. Toilet building at the old railway station
70. Originally a post office built in 1921, now a bank
71. Bus stop - where the line used to go - it is said that the cars were involved in the closing of the Juelsminde line in 1957
72. Juelsminde banen, was established in 1884, when there was nothing called Juelsminde, so the town was named after Hotel Juelsminde Strand, was a four-story inn/inn and was called "JUELS MINDE" (built in 1813 as accommodation for passengers from/to the ferry Bogense/ Klakring Strand, which closed in 1857
73. The rail bus was introduced in 1954
74. In 1954, the Juelsminde fishermen had a train carriage converted so that it was suitable for both a locomotive and a railbus, the carriage was painted white and advertised with Juelsminde Fisk - the carriage was unfortunately scrapped many years ago
75. The potter's house on Odelsgade
76. The giant inflatable plastic Santa Claus was, for one year, part of the town's Christmas display
77. You sled down the "lyneren" a hill from Odelsbjerget down between the trees and down to the forest road from the church
78. Distinctive house on Odelsgade

Upper (1st) board Starboard

79. Juelsminde Center - built in 1961 by Georg Jørgensen
80. The cooperative housing by the harbor
81. Cyclist
82. Sports school students from Hellebjerg
83. Hellebjerg Sports Youth School's landmark
84. The school
85. Tennis/Paddle
86. The playground on Odelsbjerget and Færggårdsengen
87. Hellebjerg Sports School
88. Jernbanegade 9 – the city's first post collection point
89. The town's first house – built as a clerk's residence for Juelsminde Banen's clerks in 1884) Locomotive driver Bechmann, station manager Olsen and operations manager Helweg lived in the house
90. Royal visit 1954 - King Frederik IX is welcomed by a Greenlander in national dress
91. Juelsminde Havnefest takes place every year in week 28
92. Juelsminde is a dynamic city, new people are moving to the city and new buildings have to be built
93. Hosby Huse – large model house company in the latter part of the 20th century
94. Juelsminde Brickworks established 1897 – burnt down 1968
95. The signal mast at the entrance to Juelsminde - erected in 2018 by the Harbor Museum - Advertising column for activities in the area
96. The trailer route, which took over the ferry connection between Juelsminde and Kalundborg in the period 3 November 1985 to 30 October 1990
97. During 2017, 458 children were born in Hedensted Municipality
98. Juelsminde Municipality's coat of arms is now taken over by Juelsminde Local Archives
99. Hedensted Municipality's coat of arms
100. Juelsminde Municipality's town hall, now used in Hedensted Municipality's "satellite" town hall

101. The blue flag flies every summer i.a. on Storstranden, where there is also a bathing bridge of around 90 meters and the Trygfonden has set up a lifeguard tower
102. Juelsminde Strand Camping very visited all year round, established 1958

Middle (2nd) board Port

103. Curve of the increase in the period around 1960-1980, with many immigrants etc
104. Juelsminde Church, inaugurated on 8 June 1913, donated by landowner Einar Viggo Schou, architect was Magdahl Nielsen
105. The blacksmith Ankjær Petersen, who bought one of the first cars in the city, took a trip around the Frigate Jylland the day before the meter-thick ice broke and took the frigate with him, on 27/2 1922
106. The frigate Jylland in the bay, landowner Einar Viggo Schou buys the frigate Jylland for approx. DKK 40,000 and thereby saves it from scrapping. The ship lies in the bay until 1925, after which it is sold back to the navy, (get more of the history at the Port Museum)
107. One of the dropped anchors of the Frigate Jylland, which the ship dropped when the anchor chains broke during the ice drift on 27 February 1922. Students danced around the anchor as it lay at the entrance to the city
108. Lifeboat from DSR Juelsminde
109. The pump house by the dyke on Storstranden - here the water is pumped out of the canals
110. The bathing bridge at Storstranden
111. The lifeguard tower on Storstranden
112. Entrance to Juelsminde Strand Camping
113. Minigolf is played
114. A yacht arrives at the port
115. Old entrance to Byen's cinema - unfortunately gone
116. Tractors work in construction and agriculture
117. Children knock the cat off the barrel (it appears to be out)
118. Little Søkjær
119. The ferry comes to town from 5 May 1962 to 31 December 1996 – JKL, Den lige linje, Trailerruten and Mercandia
120. Juelsminde rowing club is out in a four with coxswain
121. The line pavilion
122. Winter bathers shower in the sunshine

123. an angler doesn't get a bite

124. The ferry is sailing

125. The Port of Juelsminde has been named port of the year several times

Bottom (3rd) board Port

126. Shopping trolley, typical vehicle in shops' parking lots
127. Odelshus on Odelsgade
128. One of the city's dog walkers
129. "The warehouse" on Havnegade
130. Coast painter Else Hviid and dog
131. The artist's residence "SKOVLY" built by former owner of Palsgaard Frederik baron Wedel-Jarlsborg, for the artist Hans Peder Pedersen-Dan, who was supposed to make sculptures for the Park at Palsgaard, he did not manage to do that, but he made many works, e.g. The country soldier with the little horn blower (Rådhuspladsen in Copenhagen and many more).
132. Holger Danske and one of the Carlsberg elephants – works of art by Pedersen-Dan
133. The visits to the ship with paper clips (in steel) by the artist Ole Grøn – inaugurated on 18 May 2024
134. Knudegården – located at Bjørnsknude
135. The old Christmas mark home
136. Fishing - when there were fish in the sea
137. Stormly, has functioned as a rest/nursing home for epileptics
138. A little hare
139. Fisherman Misser sails a pig to safety during the floods in November 1945, but "the little tailor didn't need help,
- 153.

- because he could see that the matchbox had landed on the kitchen table, yes, in those days, natural disasters were taken with exalted calm
140. Waiting shed at the Coastal Hospital approx. 1950 – 1980
141. Petrol station at the entrance to the town
142. The boats are being prepared for winter storage
143. House on the corner of Sverrigsvej and Klakringvej - old grocery store, the building is popularly called Noah's Ark - because of the roof construction,
144. The first summer house – was shipped here every year
145. Cirkel Club, formerly a nightclub at the ferry port
146. Water mill wheel from Hellebjerg Mølle
147. The mill at Palsgaard – partially taken down
148. The old Juels Minde Inn and inn with tenant Andreas Olsen and family in front – around 1884 - 1900
149. A couple of pigs - it was said in the 17th century that there was so much forest on Bjørnsknude that it was valued at 24 pigs' olden. (enough food in the forest for 24 pigs)
150. Entrance to Hotel Juelsminde Strand
151. Sign above the entrance door to Juels Minde Kro from 1813
152. Juelsminde is surrounded by a lot of forest